

ISSUES REPORT
Wyoming Public Television
3rd Quarter – 2016
July, August, & September

ISSUE:	Program Title	Broadcast Date	Time	Length	Source	Description
	Wyoming Chronicle #725	7/1 7/2 7/3	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Born and raised in Jackson, Bryon is a composer/performer and his work has been recognized in several award-winning documentary films and movies. After traveling the world, Bryon has happily returned home to stay, at the source of his artistic inspiration.
	Farm to Fork #203	7/1 7/10	10 pm 6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	In this first episode we'll look at the controversy surrounding the foods we eat and the contentions behind the conflicts and what it means for Wyoming's access to traditional foods. We'll also look at what deregulation means economically and ecologically for the small scale farmer.
	Main Street, Wyoming #713	7/1	11:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Historian, author, and Riverton museum director Loren Jost shares the vintage photos and research which develop the story of Fremont County. From some of the county's oldest communities to some of its newest; from tie hacks in Dubois to sheep ranches at Lysite to the boom days of the Boysen Dam, this is the compelling history of Fremont County.
	Main Street, Wyoming #803	7/3 7/7	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	If you've ever watched the film "Cool Runnings", you'd be familiar with an improbable bobsled team from the Island of Jamaica that fought its way back to life in the 1988 winter Olympics. This documentary features the town of Evanston, Wyoming, and its heartwarming story when they opened hearts and homes to the Jamaican bobsled team so they could prepare for the winter Olympics of 2002.

	Wyoming Performances #301	7/4	8:30 pm	1 ½ hours	KCWC	Since 1997, Music In The Hole has been a special celebration of patriotism and community on the 4th of July that culminates in a free concert presented by the Grand Teton Music Festival orchestra.
	Wyoming Chronicle #614	7/8 7/9 7/10	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming Chronicle learns about the state of 4-H in Wyoming. It's not just for farm kids. 4-H is a National Youth Development Program that has been in existence for over 100 years. The primary goal of 4-H is to assist youth in developing life skills that help them live productive and satisfying lives. Some important life skills include making decisions, solving problems, relating to others, planning and organizing, communicating with others, leading self and others, and applying science and technology.
	Farm to Fork #204	7/8 7/17	10 pm 6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	In part two we'll meet some of the producers and cottage food artisans to explore the re-emergence of traditional farm foods that have evolved over hundreds of years.
	Main Street, Wyoming #720	7/8 7/14	11:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Grossman describes his songwriting as eclectic - contemporary folk which ranges from country to funk rock or blues. From operatic training as a singer to professionally performing in country bands, Grossman turned songwriter/singer and focused on producing the kind of music he remembered from his youth.

	Fremont County GOP Forum – Candidates for Wyoming’s House	7/11	9 pm	2 hours	KCWC
	Wyoming Chronicle #705	7/15 7/16 7/17	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	This Wyoming Chronicle includes a documentary by Wyoming-based filmmaker Gregory Nickerson who chronicles the Miss Indian America pageant, which was launched by Sheridan residents in the 1950s to combat discrimination. The story is told through the eyes of Miss Indian America title holders who held a reunion in 2013, serving as grand marshals in the Sheridan WYO Rodeo parade and commemorating a legacy of bridging cultures. Also, we catch up with Sheridan WYO Rodeo Board of Directors members Zane Garstad and Nick Siddle.
	Fiddlers in the Sage	7/18	10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming PBS visits the 1990 Wyoming Annual State Championship Old Time Fiddle Contest held in Shoshoni.
	Main Street, Wyoming #710	7/21 7/31	10 pm 6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Mardy Murie, born in 1902 and raised in Alaska, has called Jackson Hole home for the past 70 years. Murie and husband Olas, who has been dubbed the "greatest naturalist of this continent", spent a lifetime of travel, scientific research and involvement in conservation activities. Main Street visits Murie and her friends: Homestead Publishing owner Carl Schreier, author Bert Raynes; and Teton Science School teacher-owner Carl Schreier, and teacher Jackie Gilmore to reminisce.
	Wyoming Chronicle #616	7/22 7/23 7/24	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Joan Evans from the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services debuts a website and new state program which seeks to recruit skilled young professionals who may have left the state earlier in their careers back to Wyoming.

	Farm to Fork #202	7/22	10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Farm to Fork tells how one young farmer has transformed a depleted salts and rock laden dairy grounds into a fertile vegetable farm on a shoe string (with a dose of Biodynamics). Four years into production, Scott Richard now produces weekly shares for 80+ families in addition to two farmers markets, and weekly commercial harvests for the Whole Foods Trading Company and Willow Fence Tea Room. We also meet with Willow Fence Owner/Chef Loretta Ehmes, to learn how she's evolved a quirky neighborhood Tea Room into a reservations only Cody favorite.
	Main Street, Wyoming #721	7/24	6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Artist of Wyoming: Eva McAdams, receiver of the National Heritage Fellowship, joins Deborah Hammons on Main Street, Wyoming to talk about her beaded buckskin regalia.
	Main Street, Wyoming #706	7/28 8/5	10 pm 6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Main Street follows Dr. George Frison from his laboratory on the mountains outside Dubois to his freezer and boxes of bones at UW to learn more about this fascinating man and his world of archaeology.
	Wyoming Chronicle #729	7/29 7/30 7/31	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Inside Energy hosts a multi-media discussion on Wyoming's boom and bust economy and a group of energy economists weigh in on policy proposals from Governor Mead and presidential candidates.
	Main Street, Wyoming #1203	7/31	3:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	From the initial discovery of gold in the mid 1800's to the creation of a state historic site, South Pass City has witnessed much of Wyoming's history. In addition to being the site of Wyoming's first big gold strike, South Pass City was instrumental in Wyoming becoming a territory and ultimately a state. It was the birthplace of women's suffrage, the first territory to grant women the right to vote and hold public office. But South Pass City is perhaps best known as Wyoming's first boom and bust town, with hard working and hard drinking miners, loose women, gambling and the entrepreneurial businesses who profited from their dreams of instant wealth.

	Wyoming's US House Debates, Republican Primary Stage 1	8/2 8/5	5:30 pm 9 pm	1 hour	KCWC
	Wyoming's US House Debates, Democratic Primary	8/2 8/5	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC
	Wyoming's US House Debates, Republican Primary Stage 2	8/2 8/12	7 pm 9 pm	1 hour	KCWC
	Main Street, Wyoming #1301	8/4 8/12	10 pm 11:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	We explore how Robert Stuart's discover of South Pass became a catalyst for America's westward expansion.
	Wyoming Chronicle #603	8/5 8/6 8/7	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	From beautiful Buffalo, Wyoming, Margaret Benson visits with Paul Jarvis and Lyn Young, co-founders of the Big Horn Mountain Festival. Celebrating the 10th anniversary of the festival this year, Jarvis and Young share inside stories regarding the history of the festival and the process of selecting performers through the years.

	Farm to Fork #101	8/7	3:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Join Producer Stefani Smith on a trip to Haderlie Farms of Star Valley to meet owner/producer Curtis Haderlie. You'll learn a little about the Valley's agricultural past and what makes a farmer re-think the conventional approach to food production in Wyoming. From Star Valley, we'll follow the harvest of Curtis' farm into the kitchen of the Teton Village Four Seasons Resort Hotel. We'll meet Executive Chef Michael Goralski and Sous-Chef Erik Sakai to learn about their inspired farmer/food connection as we see the bounty delivered to plate!
	Main Street, Wyoming #609	8/7 8/11	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	A look at the old stores and stories from main streets in the early part of this century. From Shoshoni's Gambles store and the Yellowstone Drug, to stories about the scare of polio, MAIN STREET visits people and their memories of earlier days on the main streets of Wyoming.
	Wyoming Chronicle #707	8/12 8/13 8/14	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Ringler Custom Leather Company has been producing fine quality handmade leather goods since 1989. In a society where cheaply manufactured and often disposable merchandise seems to be the norm, Ringler's are keeping tradition alive with leather items that are made like they used to be, one at a time, to last a lifetime.
	Farm to Fork #103	8/14 8/17	3:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming Community Supported Agriculture is not new to Wyoming, but few of us know the thrill it offers - a weekly box of surprises, straight from the farm spring through fall. Maggie McAllister makes this obscurely named enterprise work in Daniel, Wyoming. Painted Sage Farms is a biodynamic family operation,

						offering everything from pigs to parsley, delivering a weekly box of produce to shareholders and selling surplus farm goods at farmers markets, grocers and restaurants June through mid-October - not bad at over 7,100 ft. elevation. We'll also learn about the art of fermenting vegetables with Diane Saenz, UW Extension Educator. Diane shares a creative and simple approach to fermentation and its many virtues.
	Main Street, Wyoming #610	8/14 8/18	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Author Mark Junge introduces viewers to J.E. Stimson whose photographic career in Wyoming spanned 60 years. Stimson worked for the Union Pacific Railroad and the State of Wyoming and won national awards for his photographs, taken from the turn of the century until 1948, and captured Wyoming's transition from frontier to its unique civilization today.
	Wyoming Chronicle #617	8/19 8/20 8/21	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Photographers Michael P. Berman and William S. Sutton, in collaboration between The Nature Conservancy and the Draper Museum of Natural History at the Buffalo Bill Center of the West, review their exhibit which celebrates Wyoming's grasslands and open lands.
	Farm to Fork #104	8/21	3:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming ranchers, Bobby and Brendan Thoman, return cattle to the family operation - but with an uncommon approach. Wary of today's mainstream approach to cattle production, they put their heads together and one foot in front of the other, or rather, the cow in front of the bull. Sifting through a lot of ideas and less money, they apply an elegant logic towards a healthier soil, cow and customer, and it's working. Middle Fork Restaurant Owner and

						Chef, Matt Sissman, takes this Grass Fed Beef to the next level with an age old cure - Bresaola!
	Main Street, Wyoming #619	8/21 8/25	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Over 100 years ago, Owen Wister traveled across Wyoming and the west. Inspired by his experiences, he created fictional characters and stories which continue to influence people today in his books, including the most famous one "The Virginian." Interviews with western literature and Wister authorities Jane Nelson from the University of Wyoming and author John Nesbitt from Eastern Wyoming College.
	Wyoming Chronicle #605	8/26 8/27 8/28	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming Chronicle travels to the Wyoming National Guard Camp Guernsey Joint Training Facility and learns about the Wyoming Cowboys Challenge Academy. Its vision is to be Wyoming's most effective and cost efficient program transforming at-risk 16-18 year-olds through a quality education that instills Cowboy Ethics combined with life and job skills to give them hope and opportunity for a better future. We'll meet Director Ed Meyer, staff and students (cadets) and how the program keeps cadets accountable following graduation. More info: http://www.wycowboychallenge.org/
	Main Street, Wyoming #625	8/28 9/1	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Published in 1914, "Letters of a Woman Homesteader" by Elinore Pruitt Stewart was called the literary discovery of the year. Elinore Stewart came to Wyoming with the ambition of homesteading near Burntfork, Wyoming, and her letters describe her adventures and the people she came to know. Western Wyoming college instructor Marcia Hensley takes her spring class to Stewart's homestead cabin to hear stories, discuss the homesteader, and hear from a family acquaintance who recalls her childhood friendship with Elinore's daughter.

	Wyoming Chronicle #708	9/3 9/4	6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	During the Wyoming High School football playoffs, Wyoming Chronicle visits Morgan Tyree, a graphic arts instructor from Northwest College, who has been capturing images from 6- man and 8-man football games in Wyoming and Montana for 20 years. Despite the decadence of American football at the professional, college, and some high school levels, this body of work illustrates that there are still places in this country where football's innocence is preserved and celebrated in a grass roots setting.
	Live from Dennison Lodge #101	9/4	12 am	1 hour	KCWC	Singer-songwriter Pierce Pettis is the inaugural performer for Wyoming PBS' newest performance series. In the first of many such concerts from the iconic Dennison Lodge in Dubois, WY, the Alabama native thrills a packed house with his insightful lyrics and smooth personable delivery.
	Main Street, Wyoming #702	9/4 9/8	6:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wind River Canyon, one of Wyoming's natural and historical treasures. Bonnie Bleak, a homesteader's daughter, tells her family's stories about life in the isolated canyon when she was young.
	Wyoming Chronicle #724	9/9 9/11	7:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming native Scott Acton has played a key role in the upcoming launch of NASA's James Webb Space Telescope. He's also embarked on 15,000 worldwide bike ride to promote the telescope all after enduring quadruple-bypass heart surgery just eight months ago.

	Main Street, Wyoming #624	9/9 9/22	11:30 pm 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Immigration: Wyoming Stories. Journey back to Rock Springs of the 1920's with University of Wyoming American History Professor Eric Sandeen to learn more about the cultural diversity of Wyoming Immigrants: Adeniyi Coker for Nigeria; Pastor Sifuentes from Latin America ; and the Ula Family for Bangladesh
	Main Street, Wyoming #704	9/11 9/23	6:30 pm 11:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Fascinating and fun describes the published book "I See By You r Outfit", by Wyoming authors Tom Lindemier and Steve Mount. The story of historic cowboy gear of the northern plains is told through vintage photographs and years of historical research.
	Wyoming Chronicle #801	9/16 9/17	7:30 pm 6:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	On the eve of the Wyoming Cowboys home football game with the U.C. Davis Aggies, Wyoming Chronicle sits down with University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman to discuss what's next with Wyoming Athletics. Topics to be covered include impacts of state budget cuts on Wyoming athletics, capitol construction projects, athletic department fundraising and Wyoming's future in the Mountain West Conference as a NCAA Division I competitor in men's and women's athletics.
	Main Street, Wyoming #618	9/16 9/21 9/29	11:30 pm 4:30 am 10 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming's Outlaws: Life in the Territorial Prison. Built in 1872 this prison holds the stories of some of the state's most colorful characters, including Butch Cassidy and other notorious outlaws. Interviews with author Elnora Frye; Mike Massie, Wyoming historians; Grace Willing, Director of Marketing for the prison: and Fred Henman, chairman of the board for the Territorial park; also includes a tour of the prison with guide Jim Vander Hooven

	Reviving Civility in Politics? Is it Possible?	9/19 9/20 9/24	9 pm 4 am 3 pm	1 hour	KCWC	An engaging evening with Former Governor of Wyoming and U.S. Ambassador to Ireland, Mike Sullivan, and former U.S. Senator Al Simpson. Moderated by former Wyoming Supreme Court Justice Marilyn Kite. Featuring a lively discussion about civility in politics and the current political climate in our world and nation. Is it possible to have reasonable and civil discussions in our modern polarized times?
	Wyoming Chronicle #712	9/23 9/24 9/25	7:30 pm 6:30 pm 12 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Dr. Terresa Humphries-Wadsworth, PhD, Director of Statewide Suicide Prevention; Dr. Carolyn Pepper, PhD, Professor of Psychology at the University of Wyoming and Rev. Dr. and State Senator Bernadine Craft discuss the issue of suicide in Wyoming and the region. Wyoming's suicide rate is the worst in the country and the problem affects both men and women, young and old, of all races.
	Live from Dennison Lodge #102	9/25	12 am	1 hour	KCWC	Karen Savoca's warm vocals and catch percussion, accompanied by her husband Pete on guitar, bring an eclectic mix of engaging songs to this second in a series of live performances at the iconic Dennison Lodge in Dubois, Wyoming.
	Wyoming Chronicle #730	9/30	7:30 pm	½ hour	KCWC	Wyoming Chronicle focuses on pathways and general momentum related to Complete College Wyoming. Topics will also include industry need for skilled workers, the impact of the economic downturn as well as of particular initiatives of CCW.