

Wyoming Public Television
Equal Employment Opportunity
Public File Report
For the period 6/1/2005 to 5/31/2006 (Amended)

Wyoming Public Television is a service of Central Wyoming College a public institution of higher education governed locally by the Fremont County Community College District through a board of elected trustees and as part of a state-wide system of community colleges administered by the Wyoming Community College Commission. Central Wyoming College is the licensee of KCWC-FM, KCWC-TV, KCWC-DT, KWYP-TV and associated microwave and translator systems.

In the year beginning June 1, 2005 and ending May 31, 2006 Wyoming Public Television filled the following employment vacancies:

Clerk of the Works

Television Producer/Writer

These employees were hired by Central Wyoming College under college policies and guideline administered by the college's Human Resources Officer. Wyoming Public Television interviewed a total of 4 persons for the full time positions listed above. The College used the following publications or services for recruiting :

The Riverton Ranger - newspaper

The Lander Journal - newspaper

The Wind River News - newspaper

The Wyoming Job Service – state wide internet accessible

CWC Web Site

Personal Referrals

The Clerk of the Works responded to job announcements on the CWC Web Site. The Television Producer/ Writer was personally referred once the job announcement had been posted and advertised.

All persons were referred to Wyoming Public Television by the Office of Human Resources at Central Wyoming College according to college policy 7.1.2 which includes the following statements:

“3. All job announcements and help wanted ads will display the following statement: "Central Wyoming College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, religion, or disability in admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its education programs, services or activities."

4. All other qualifications being equal, an effort will be made to select members of ethnic minorities, women, Vietnam-era disabled veterans, persons of disability and/or persons between ages 40-70 to fill vacant positions.”

At the request of the Federal Communications Commission in an email dated September 6, 2006, the following information is included as an amendment to the 2005 and 2006 public file reports.

Contact information for the recruitment sources identified in the 2005 and 2006 public file reports.

Riverton Ranger, Lander Journal, Wind River News
P.O. Box 993
Riverton, WY 82501

Email: rangerads@wyoming.com, phone (307)856-2244

State Employment Office
Email: sdean@state.wy.us , phone (307) 856-9231

Broadcast Engineering Magazine
c/o Primedia Buisness Magazines & Media
PO Box 96985
Chicago, IL 60693

Phone (800) 814-9511

On campus job announcements are posted by:
Wendy Davis, Human Resources Officer
Central Wyoming College
2660 Peck Avenue
Riverton, WY 82501

Email; wdavis@cwv.edu, phone: (307) 855-2113

Additionally, the Commission had ask that Wyoming Public Television identify the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source. Central Wyoming College, the licensee, does not collect that information from interviewees so is not able to provide that information at this time. Wyoming Public Television will begin to collect that information on future(after October 1, 2006) interviewees, such that it will be able to provide that information in future public file reports.